Which reports were unanimously adopted.

Cornelius Carnes, Eq., from the committee appointed for that purpose, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously.—

Resolved, That we, the citizens of the Tenth ward, heartily respend to the nomination of Horatio Seymour for Governor of the State of New York, He stands forth as the champion of freedom; and his hold and fearless vindication of the civil and personal liberties of the people, contained in his veto of Myron H. Clark's Maine liquor bill, commands the admiration of all lovers of constitutional liberty. We piculge curselves individually and collectively, to use our utmost andeavors to re-elect him to that position which he now fills with so much honor to himself, and credit to the State.

Resolved, That in Fernando Wood, our candidate for Mayor, and the other persons nominated for county ofheers at Tammany Hall, and particularly our own Harry Johnson for Register, we recentise men of long and tried standing in the party, and in the community, and know that they will faithfully dichearse the duties of the offices for which they have respectively been nominated.

Resolved, That in John Kelly, our candidate for Congress, we have presented a man whose integrity, energy and espacity, give assurance that he will properly represent the laterests of our commercial emporium in the councils of the affice. We feel that his election is already secured.

Resolved, That the urplat, consistent and independent ourse pursued by our able representative in the last Assenbly, tearge H. Richards, merits our hearty approval, and making Herdy, our candidates for Councilment, entities him to re-election; to the last Assenbly, tearge H. Richards, merits our hearty approval, and the mental part two parts shall be a second of the candidates for Councilment, entitles him to re-election is a hearty approval, and remained in the last Assenbly, tearge H. Richards, merits our hearty approval, and the mental part two parts and the re-nomination of Jam

Assessor, is a just acknowledgement of the ablo manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office during the past two years.

Resolved, That the subject of free education is one in which every citizen is deeply interested. We regard the selection of school officers as of more than ordinary importance, and feel proud in presenting the anmes of Jay Jarvis for School Commissioner, Samuel C. Seaman and John C. Graham for School Inspectors, and William Anderson, Charles I. Brown and John B. Parks for Trustees, well knowing that the interests of our common schools will be provided for under their supervision.

Resolved, That James Rile and Jacob Badenhop, our candidates for Constables, are competent and proper persons to perform the duties incumbent upon them as such.

Resolved, finally, that it is the duty of the democracy to elect their whole ticket, and that we will take care that our duty is performed.

Is meeting was then elequently addressed by Messrs. Smith, Carnes and Gale; after which, on motion, it adjourned.
